

P4fifty is an FP7-funded European Marie Curie Training Network of academic and industrial researchers looking to develop enzymatic methods for green oxidation chemistry through the isolation, redesign and application of cytochrome P450 enzymes.

